

BC BIZ RADAR

Sample issue — every new business in BC, weekly

Week of June 9, 2026 (data: May 31 – Jun 9)

Two streams every Monday: newly licensed businesses you can reach this week, and every brand-new BC incorporation so you're first in the door. From the BC Corporate Registry and City of Vancouver open data — normalized, verticalized, identity-checked against OrgBook BC.

953

verticals, classified

Reachable this week — the businesses below just took out a City of Vancouver licence and publish a contact: address, phone, owner name, or email, each carried with its source link in your CSV. If you sell commercial insurance: the contractors here need CGL (and most need bonding) before they can step on a site. If you do books or tax: a new licence means a bookkeeping, GST, and payroll decision is being made right now.

Newly licensed BC businesses — reachable now

37 of 82 this week publish a contact. Sorted contact-first; full list ships in the subscriber CSV with a source URL on every field.

Be first in — 869 companies incorporated in BC last week. Day-0 companies rarely have a website yet, so most show a name + vertical + OrgBook verification today; that gap is the first-mover window — nobody else has reached them either, and our weekly re-scan appends each contact the moment the company publishes one. If you do books or tax: every one below now owes CRA corporate books, a GST decision at $30k, and a first T2.

Brand-new BC incorporations — sampled across verticals

CASL-safe by construction: every contact field is taken only from a conspicuously published business page, and the subscriber CSV carries the exact source URL behind each one (s.10(9)(b) implied-consent evidence). Owner names appear only where the firm publishes them on its own site. Rows showing "—" are day-0 companies with nothing published yet — we never fabricate, buy, or guess contact data. That honesty is the product.
